O R D E R

Learned counsel for the State submits at the out-set that prima facie it seems that the matter should be examined by the Civil Court inasmuch as the matter relates to land. On the other hand, Shri Rajeev Shrivastava, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that even assuming that the petitioner came as trespasser once he is in possession, no third person has any right to ~~this logic here~~ dislodge him. Hence, the complaint was filed by him before the Police Station Takathpur on 18/6/2001. However, no action has been taken. It is submitted that once complaint has been made, the concerned Police should deal with it and give its own finding ~~for report~~. ~~He~~ The Complaint cannot ~~be~~ simply be kept without any action. It appears that once complaint was made, the petitioner would be entitled to know as to the result of investigation, if such investigation has been carried out. The Station
